EDNA KENT FORBES

Cheer And Appetite
THE WRITER of the old proverb "Better a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith" had more in mind than the mental effect of such conditions.
Never eat while you are angry or ex-

Being cheerful is the best sort of an cited, it is better if you skip an entire meal, than to force food into your system, when that system is unduly excited.

The fat woman is cheerful, which is one of the reasons she is fat. Do not misunderstand, you who wish to reduce, and think that cheerfulness alone is the cause of your fleshiness.
The reason is that the cheerful mind

NO. 14.
IN MY LAST "talk" I tried to answer a girl who wanted to know why so many people had a bad name for picture actresses. I told her, you remember, that it was because people were usually looking for the bad in others and, just because the picture folk were so much in the limelight, they had the better opportunity to find there what little there was and to elaborate upon it.
In this same observation we may find a very good reason why the girl who aspires to be a picture actress should be most careful of her step. She may be sure that her smallest indiscretion will be magnified many-fold. It is all very well to declare, that we don't care what people say so long as it isn't true, but the fact remains that the malignant weight of gossip and insinuation, though it be false, is often the thing that snaps a girl's moral fiber. Many a girl has crumpled before the finger of suspicion.
Another thing to remember in this same connection is that, because of the foolish gossip about picture people, there are a lot of hair-brain men who have come to a conclusion that they may take any liberty they wish with a girl, so long as she is a film actress, and, I am sorry to say, there are a few thoughtless girls who encourage this opinion through what they term "harmless flirtations." I would ask these girls to remember that picture acting demands just as much dignity and respect as any other profession, and, if they do not treat it so, they are playing false to it and to their sisters in the work.
These "harmless flirtations" about such things, but, as a usual thing, the very attitude and state of mind of the man in these affairs are an insult to a girl's intelligence. There is no conceit so presumptuous as that of the man flirt. He carries a supercilious air of superiority and treats the girl as a mental nonentity.
Why must some girls encourage him in it?

MILLS TEACHER TO BE DEAN AT WILSON COLLEGE

Miss Harriet Congdon, instructor in English at Mills school, Manoa, has been elected dean at Wilson College, a girls' school at Chambersburg, Pa.
Miss Congdon has just received word of her new position through a wireless message from the college authorities.

Wilson is one of the oldest colleges for women in the East and is held in high repute. Its president is Dr. E. D. Warfield, former president of Lafayette College. Chambersburg is a two or three hours' ride from Philadelphia.

Miss Congdon has been at Mills only since February, when she came to take the position vacated by Miss Mary Stambaugh. She came here after four years as dean of women at Hillsdale (Mich.) College. She is a graduate of Mount Holyoke and took post-graduate work at Oxford University and the University of Michigan.
She will probably leave here in August to take up her new work.

Tea is one of the leading exports of Brazil.

A FEARLESS PHYSICIAN

Such a physician recently remarked: "The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over diseases of women is not because it is a stimulant, not because it is a palliative, but simply because it contains the very elements needed to tone up the female system and strengthen the depleted organism." Of course that is so, otherwise it could not succeed as it has.—Adv.
